Men's Section

On behalf of the Casey and Schiulaz families thank you one and all who have dug deep to buy raffle tickets in support of our Juniors representing our Club and District in the up coming tournament on the Sunshine Coast. Through your support we hope to cover the cost of accommodation for Nick and James and perhaps put a few dollars in their pockets toward living expenses for the week. Special mention to Adrian Raadel for donating the Picnic/Wine pack for the raffle on Saturday April 2nd. Margy Scott is driving the fund raising for the boys, if she approaches you for a ticket don't dare refuse. Thanks to Margy and Rosy for the donations.

Mens Section President Don Ferris invited Wyatt Roy, Andrew Powell and Adrian Raadel to our Club on April 2nd where each donated a Flag to our Club. We now have in our possession a fine new Australian Flag, a Queensland State Flag and a Moreton Shire Flag. There are, I believe, only 30 or 40 Moreton Shire Flags in existence. The fact that we have been presented with one is a great reflection on the esteem in which our Club is held within our Community. I do hope these three gentlemen enjoyed their afternoon at the Cub as much as we enjoyed their company. Thanks to Margy Dahl for instigating the Coaching Day last Friday, Coaches Alan Thorpe and Mick Cherry gave their time to help with around 16 of our members on the day. I know it worked because next day Jill Engelmann played like she had a jacks magnet in her bowls. Greens Director Dave Nugent was on the money as well.

Members will notice the change in the Games Boards, the Club is looking to get the Honour Boards back on the walls and to accommodate this a few changes need to be made, be patient, it will happen.

Cheers Bob.

Ladies Section

The Ladies have been busy again this month visiting Solander Lake, Narangba, Samford and Sandgate. The "Wander into Woodford" Day on 10th March saw 18 bowlers have a great morning with 3 pairs and one triples occupying 4 rinks. Winning teams with closest margins were Ros Graham and Shirley Riddle with runners up Pam Harman, Trudi Pratt and Dot Kennedy. On Sunday 13th March the Ladies Singles Club Championship first round featured two matches with Marg Dahl v. Janelle Leenen and Pam Harman v. Ros Graham. The winners were Marg Dahl and Ros Graham. Congratulations to all ladies for two excellent matches and thanks to Graham Little and Lorna Smith for acting as markers. On Tuesday 22nd March four of our ladies, Lorna Smith, Ros Graham, Margaret Dahl and Pam Harman joined other ladies from the Caboolture District to travel to Tewantin-Noosa Bowls Club for the challenge match against the Sunshine Coast. A good day was had despite the very hot conditions. Unfortunately the Sunshine Coast were the overall winners on the day. A reminder to ladies to play your Club Singles and Pairs games as soon as possible. Also, a reminder that there is room on the bus going to see Riverdance on 16th April. If anyone would like to go shopping in Brisbane for $10.00 return, then please call Ros Graham.

The next Ladies meeting is at 5 pm and Friday April 15th, see you then.

Regards, Pam

PS Don't forget the Ladies Financial Day on Thursday 14th April.
