

GAMES

PUB DAY

The Pub Day was won by Geoff, Janis, Peter and Lex. Runners up were Avon, Julie, Gordon and Jan. Brett Kelly won first and Second prize in the raffle. Brett kindly returned the second prize for a redraw.

MAPLETON

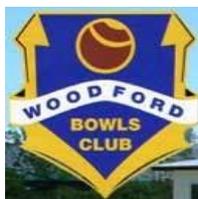

Mapleton were victors by 14 shots overall last Sunday, thanks to everyone who played, great effort but we fell just short. We'll fix that on the return visit.

KANDANGA

Both games have now been cancelled. They are a small club with fewer active members than Woodford. They do have full greens but that is made up of quite a few visiting clubs, same as our Wednesday Triples. The suggestion has been made that if we can send one or two teams to their Pig Days, they will reciprocate on our money days. More later.

JACKPOT $$$

Breakfast/Jackpot Pairs July 3rd. Numbers for Breakfast remain good, we still have a few regular B/J bowlers away, another five who were there for breakfast had to get away early so rinks were down. We still managed a good day on the green, weather was perfect. The Jackpot wasn't won and now stands at $144 for August.

PENNANTS AND CLUB CHAMPIONSHIP

Saturday July 2nd 1st Div away to Caboolture Lake lost overall by 3 shots. James' team had a very good win, however, our other two teams struggled in the middle ends and whilst we were able to claw back a little at the end it was not quite good enough. 4ths at home vs Caboolture Lake went down 5 shots overall with one winning and one losing rink. I'm sure we will reverse the overall result in our return matches a few weeks down the track.

Saturday July 9, 1st Div are away to Bribie and 4ths are at Home vs Solander Lake. Unfortunately the final of the Men's Fours was not played this year; the match was won by James Schiulaz Team on a forfeit. This is not the result either team wanted, however, due to delays in all disciplines, too much pressure was put on the fours to be completed in time.

Nominations for Club Championship Mixed Pairs and Triples will close on the second of September. This year we will revert to the traditional method of Club selected teams so that all members have the opportunity to participate in and enjoy Club Championship matches. Club selected will only apply to non-district competition matches which have the overall effect of building confidence and skills so that all members will be more inclined to enter Club Championships which lead to higher representation if desired.

Ros and Julie entered the Bribie Island Ladies Prestige Pairs which was played over the weekend. 45 Teams entered the tournament, a fair proportion of the teams were state players, squad members, the odd Australian rep and some very handy club players who regularly chase the money games. Ros and Julie had a victory over the talented Kawana pairing; they lost the other four games, two of them against rated sides by only one shot.

All in all a very good effort from Ros and Julie, well done.

Cheers

Bob
