DISTRICT

Congratulations Jan, Ros and all members of the Caboolture District Ladies Fours on winning the Team Challenge, Caboolture Vs Brisbane North July 24th, at Bribie Island Bowls Club. Caboolture won 225 shots to 174. Peteena played the singles of C of C.C. on July 26, Peteena narrowly lost to Isabelle McLaren from Bribie 22 shots to 26. A great effort considering Peteena doesn't get to play a lot of bowls, I'm told the game could have gone either way.

James, Lewis, Nick and Tagen won through to the final of the C of C. C. Fours, played at Glasshouse yesterday. After a luckless start we were behind 9 – 1 after 7 ends. Woodford fought hard and with 2 ends to go were level at 14 all, then 2 shots down with one end to go. Woodford were holding two shots to take the match to sudden death until the Bribie skipper sent down his last bowl, Woodford down by 3. The final score, 14 shots to 19. Thanks to the Woodford supporters for turning up, James, Lewis, Tagen and Nick really appreciated your support. Well done to the team, they played a great game and are worthy representatives of our club.

If we have less than 12, we will board the coach, 6am, at Caboolture Lakes Bowls Club. First stop for lunch and bowls and overnight stay is Yamba. We depart Yamba at 8 am Sunday morning for bowls and lunch at Iluka. Coach departs Iluka at 1.30 pm to arrive at Caboolture Lakes at 6 pm and Woodford around 6.30 pm if numbers allow. The cost is $145 per person which includes travel, accommodation, lunches and bowls. PENNANTS

Congratulations to our Mens 4th Division on their fantastic win over Bongaree at home Saturday July 23rd. It was a very close game for both teams, Woodford up by one shot on the last end. Firsts had a draw at home against Caboolture Lakes, Shawn's team picked up two shots on the last end to even the score at 62 shots each, another great team effort. Last Saturday Woodford defeated Bribie in 1st Division; 4ths went down to a red hot Donnybrook side. Depending on the final round results, Woodford 1sts are a chance to bring the flag home. Good luck everyone. Good luck to our ladies who play the first round of Pennants at Narangba on Tuesday. Game starts at 9.30 am.
