

GAMES

We had 4 rinks for August 7th Brekky/Jackpot Pairs and a good roll up for breakfast. The jackpot did not go off so now stands at $176 for September 4. The prize for highest winning margin was won by Paul Byster (skip) and Bob Graham. Seafood Days in September and December will be held on Wednesday instead of Thursday. Don't forget the visit in on September 1st from Southern Downs District Clubs.

BI-ANNUAL MEETING

Once again attendance for General Meetings was very poor; we had a quorum but only just. Our Bi-Annual was held Sunday August 7 to set fees for 2017 and approve or reject suggested changes to our constitution as per the advice sent to all members July 7th, 2016 and to consider any other notices of motion.

Full members $85 (changed from $80)

Junior members $25 (unchanged)

Social members $10 (changed from $8)

Dual members $30 (changed from $25)

Green Fees $10 (changed from $8)

Our fees have not changed since 2012/13, the increases are modest and changes were supported by all in attendance and take effect from October 2016. The meeting agreed that for Club Championship matches the nomination fee of $10, payable with your written nomination will also cover first round green fees.

All recommendations with respect to the Club Constitution were discussed and approved with one amendment to majority of votes for special resolutions. Wording has been simplified, the 75% majority of those present still applies. A copy of the amended Constitution will be made available to members a.s.a.p.

COMEDY NIGHT AT THE CLUB

“The Cafe Sessions” presented by Theatre Makers Jenny Packham and Pauline Thompson last Monday was a terrific night’s entertainment. The first two sessions were very cleverly put together, down to earth comedy/drama, most entertaining. The last session involved members of the audience and showcased a couple of very talented club members who perhaps missed their calling, they’d definitely fit in to any travelling sideshow or circus. Have a look at the following photos; if you weren’t there, you missed a really good night, thanks Margaret for getting it organised.

I'm the star, why haven't I got top billing?

R.I.P Ken Luck

A few weeks ago some of us played Pennants against Ken, he was on fire, played near the perfect game. It was around that time he was given little time to play the season out. Ken was a gentleman, our thoughts are with his loved ones, may he rest in peace.
