GAMES.

Diggers Day raised $473.55 for Legacy, the sum raised does not include donations in the Diggers hat which is usually in excess of $100. Thanks to the Bowls Club for donating three breakfast trays to raffle and for the sausage sandwiches purchased by gold coin donation. A number of fines were levied for serious breaches of bowls etiquette, no socks, hugging on the green, flashing, dobbing, wrong bias and many others but my favourite was everyone who was not fined got fined for not being fined, well spotted Margaret.

Please note, due to the start of heavy dew season Friday Night bowls has finished and will resume in September.

The visit in by Geebung Social as usual was a fun relaxing day of competitive bowls. Guests and members enjoyed a lovely 2 course lunch and plenty of friendship at the bar. We look forward to visiting Geebung later in the year.

GREAT COMEBACK

This is a portion of an ABC radio interview from a couple of years ago between a female broadcaster and General Cosgrove who was about to sponsor a Boy Scout Troop visiting his military Headquarters.

FEMALE INTERVIEWER: So, General Cosgrove, what things are you going to teach these young boys when they visit your base?

GENERAL COSGROVE: We're going to teach them climbing, canoeing, archery and shooting.

FEMALE INTERVIEWER: Shooting! That's a bit irresponsible, isn't it?

GENERAL COSGROVE: I don't see why, they'll be properly supervised on the rifle range.

FEMALE INTERVIEWER: Don't you admit that this is a terribly dangerous activity to be teaching children?

GENERAL COSGROVE: I don't see how. We will be teaching them proper rifle discipline before they even touch a firearm.

FEMALE INTERVIEWER: But you're equipping them to become violent killers.

GENERAL COSGROVE: Well, Ma'am, you're equipped to be a prostitute, but you're not one, are you?

The broadcast went silent for 46 seconds and when it returned, the interview was over.
