GAMES

Dave Eldridge, Lindsay Ross and Stephen picked up the $180 team prize by winning our first Turbo Triples last Wednesday. Runners up, $90 team prize were Trudie Pratt, Pam Taylor and John Worrell. $45 team prize for round winners went to Alex & Rhonda (WA visitors) and Woodfords Ross Kerr. Mike Wheelers team won the second round, Rod, Gary and George won the 3rd round. Many thanks to those who showed up and welcomed Morayfield Fishing Club for their annual game of bowls and lunch, hopefully next year might see a few more of our members joining in. The Seafood Day was won by Lowood, runners up were Pine Rivers, the two round winners were Mike Wheelers Team and Graeme Littles Team. Thanks to everyone who had a hand in putting the day on, 7 rinks on an AFL Grand Final Day was an exceptionally good effort.

Our Ladies Presidents at Home/Birthday 4's was a well-run, relaxed and enjoyable day. Although Pres Jules couldn't be there she certainly put in a great effort to make sure everyone had a good time. Thanks Cathy for stepping up in Julianna's absence and for Avies response on behalf of the Pres. Apart from our local Clubs we had visits from Bramble Bay, Brighton, Scarborough, Pine Rivers, Dayboro and Samford. We had some very positive feed-back from our visitors regarding our hospitality and friendly atmosphere. A great opportunity taken to form new friendships and contacts for visits in and out next year.

DATING IN THE 60's

It was a hot Saturday evening in the summer of 1963, and James had a date with Annabella.

He arrived at her house and rang the bell.

'Oh, come on in!' Annabella's mother said as she welcomed James. 'Have a seat in the lounge. Would you like something to drink? Lemonade? Tea?'

'Tea, please,' James said. Mum brought the tea.

'So, what are you and Annabella planning to do tonight?' she asked interestedly.

'Oh, probably go to the cinema and then maybe grab a bite to eat at the coffee bar, perhaps have a walk on the beach afterwards.'

'Annabella likes to screw, you know,' Mum informed him.

'Really?' James gasped, surprised to say the least.

'Oh yes,' mother continued, 'When she goes out with her friends, that's all they do!'

'Is that so?' asked James, incredulously.

'Oh yes,' she said. 'As a matter of fact, she'd screw all night if we let her!'

'Phew! Well, thanks for the tip!' James said as he began thinking about alternative plans for the evening.

A moment later, Annabella came down the stairs looking pretty as a picture, wearing a pink blouse and a hoop skirt and with her hair tied back in a bouncy ponytail.

She greeted James. 'Have fun, kids!' mother said as they left.

Half an hour later, a completely dishevelled Annabella burst into the house and slammed the front door behind her.

'The Twist, Mum!' she yelled angrily to her mother in the kitchen. 'The bloody dance is called theTwist!'
