A couple of late withdrawals dropped us back to 6 rinks, we managed to get 8 ends played before 20ml of rain cut the day short. Thanks to our members who helped fill the gaps in some of our guest teams, I hope our newer bowlers Adam, Ross, Darryl, Wolfgang, Chris, Colin, Pam and Vic enjoyed the day. Good to have past winners Roger, Lyn and Dale join us for the day along with all our other VIP's. Overall winners were Hortons Heroes who collected the $60 Team prize, there were also 3 randomly drawn $30 team prizes. Thanks again to Anne Wilkes for the beautiful hand-made necklace and matching earrings, Dave Horton for the bottle of Bundy Rum, Ros Graham for the watch and toucher prizes, Graeme Little for the 4 handy coolers, the Club for the beers to go with the coolers, the 6 pack, the Club Vouchers and afternoon tea.

HOW THE EUROPEAN BAILOUT REALLY WORKS

It is a slow day in a little Greek Village. The rain is beating down and the streets are deserted. Times are tough, everybody is in debt, and everybody lives on credit. On this particular day a rich German tourist is driving through the village, stops at the local hotel and lays a €100 note on the desk, telling the hotel owner he wants to inspect the rooms upstairs in order to pick one to spend the night. The owner gives him some keys and, as soon as the visitor has walked upstairs, the hotelier grabs the €100 note and runs next door to pay his debt to the butcher. The butcher takes the €100 note and runs down the street to repay his debt to the pig farmer. The pig farmer takes the €100 note and heads off to pay his bill at the supplier of feed and fuel. The guy at the Farmers' Co-op takes the €100 note and runs to pay his drinks bill at the tavern. The publican slips the money along to the local prostitute drinking at the bar, who has also been facing hard times and has had to offer him "services" on credit. The hooker then rushes to the hotel and pays off her room bill to the hotel owner with the €100 note. The hotel proprietor then places the €100 note back on the counter so the rich traveller will not suspect anything. At that moment the traveller comes down the stairs, picks up the €100 note, states that the rooms are not satisfactory, pockets the money, and leaves town. No one produced anything. No one earned anything. However, the whole village is now out of debt and looking to the future with a lot more optimism. And that, Ladies and Gentlemen, is how the bailout package works.
